

RESOURCE CONSULTANT

Permanent full-time positions (35 hours per week) Sudbury

Guided by our values, Child & Community Resources' (CCR) vision is to connect and engage in quality experiences every day. We strive to make a meaningful difference by building relationships, empowering others, promoting wellbeing, and supporting lifelong learning. If you connect with our values and love working with children, youth, and their families, we currently have a job openings for the position of Resource Consultant.

Your primary responsibilities will be the provision of support services for children and youth, five to twelve years of age, with identified needs who attend licensed Early Learning and Child Care programs. You will conduct consultations and facilitate support required for staff and families to maximize the opportunities for inclusion in the childcare program and community. This will include consultations with Registered Early Childhood Educators, working with community partners, and assisting with the creation of individual skill development plans.

You hold a diploma or degree in Child and Youth Work, or a university undergraduate degree in Behaviour Analysis or Psychology. Individuals with Developmental Service Worker diplomas may be considered. You have at least 2 years' experience in working with children and youth with identified needs, including advanced knowledge in child development and experience related to the implementation of Applied Behaviour Analysis methods.

Your schedule may vary and include evening and weekend work. You need an ability to travel between different work locations.

The ability to communicate effectively in both official languages is considered an asset.

Kindly note: Proof of a Health Canada approved COVID-19 vaccination series is required to be considered for this position.
